THE NEW YORK TIMES, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1:

Panthers Say an Autopsy Shows Party Official Was 'Murdered'

By JOHN KIFNER Special to The New York Times

CHICAGO, Dec. 6-A black right eye. An examination of theory that he was murdered and behind his head."
while he was asleep."

"Another bullet hole was be-

Thursday morning. two men were shot in a gun angle, and one on the right battle lasting at least 10 min-arm." utes when the raiding party en-tered the apartment a block from the Panther offices at 4:40 top of the head, but the doc-A.M. The police said that what tors could not find the bullet, they termed a "shootout" ensued after a woman in the James J. Walsh, administraapartment opened fire on them tive assistant to coroner An-wounded in the apartment, and three more were arrested. One policeman was grazed on the leg with a shotgun pellet and another cut his hand on a piece that the official examination showed Mr. Hampton had been struck by a bullet in the left temple and by another in the lower portion of his neck, while a third had grazed his arm.

Party Aide Surrenders

the police had burst into the himself was under investigation apartment and opened fire and for his connection with the Panthat the occupants had had no thers. Mr. Hanrahan's office opportunity to shoot back.

ficial here, surrendered to the Rayner. police this morning at a meeting of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's opera-police staged a raid on his people."

apartment at 5:30 A.M. yesterhad produced a 22-caliber, er was slain. Hundreds of peo-two-shot derringer, several ple, including some whites and two-shot derringer, several hundred rounds of ammunition, dried leaves that might be mari-passed through, listening as luana military instruction manuals and literature that they the bullet holes.

The small, fix

bond.

at the funeral home owned by Alderman A. A. Rayner, where tion of what they said was a Mr. Hampton's body is awaiting burial on Monday.

Lawyer Watches Autopsy

Francis Andrew, one of three the Panthers were shot.

attorneys for the Black PanRoy Innis, national director ensic medicine. He was assisted since January, 1968. by two other distinguished doctors.'

hole was found just below Fred Daley of Hampton's hairline above his officials.

alderman and attorneys for the the angle of the wound showed Black Panther party asserted today that an independent autopy performed on the body of Fred Hampton, a slain Panther official "confirms our above him, slightly to the right theory, that he was murdered and behind him to the right theory, that he was murdered and behind him to the right theory.

Mr. Hampton, the 21-year-old low the right ear, with an exit Illinois state chairman of the hole on the left side of the Panthers, and Mark Clark, a lower neck, showing exactly Panther leader from Peoria, the same angle as the other were shot to death in a police bullet hole," the lawyer conraid on an apartment here early tinued. "There were two other bullet grazes, one of the front The police have said that the left shoulder, again at the same drew J. Toman, said yesterday Four other Panthers were that the official examination

Meanwhile, Edward V. Han-Party Aide Surrenders rahan, state's attorney, announced that Alderman Rayner said that copies of the lease The Panthers' deputy minis- on the Panther headquarters ter of defense, Bobby Lee Rush, "uncovered" yesterday had been the ranking surviving party of signed by Mr. Rush and Mr.

Says He Signed Lease

The alderman confirmed that tion breadbasket.

He had been sought on a war-rant charging him with failure to register a war-rant charging him the transfer a short war-rant charging him to register a to register a weapon since the area about my work with young

The Panthers have been conday. He was not at home then, ducting public tours of the The police said that the raid apartment in which their lead-

The small, five-room apart-Mr. Rush was held on $1,500 ment does not have the extensive scars, pockmarks and The private autopsy was held bullet holes that one might expect from the police descripand entire rooms have no visible scars, and most of the bullets are clustered in the area where thers who arranged and ob- of the Congress of Racial Equal-served the examination, said ity, called yesterday for investhat the autopsy had been con-ducted by "a leading patholo-gist, a renowned expert in for-killed in clashes with the police in. telegrams to President Nixon, All three doctors were white Attorney General John N Mr. Andrews said, "a bullet Mitchell, Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago ampton's hairline above his officials: